IN LINCOLN'S FIFTY STYLE.

It is the most of the time and condensed style of expression common in the West may be said to carry off the palm for wit. A better use to which it may be put, however, is in clothing great truths in a homely but telling fashion which commands attention and carries conviction.
Lincoln was a master of this form of expression, and the public and private speeches which are attributed to him are apparently without number. The facts which are stated in the following extracts from letters from residents of Wisconsin have nothing to do with the political question.
"Athletes helped me greatly," says Samuel M. Bear, of Cascade, "and probably were it not for other complications would have effected a cure. I used five bottles and am satisfied that the medicine is a good one."
A. H. Luckenbach, the druggist in Water-ville's block, Ontario, says:
"Mr. George McCarty told me today that he had spent over five hundred dollars in medicines for the benefit of his rheumatism, but that he had never found anything which did him any good until he tried a bottle of Athletes, which made a permanent cure. It gives the look of satisfaction and does it; that is what I feel."
From Deaver Dam, the Rev. J. C. Kinder writes:
"I do not much benefit from Athletes, but sometimes feel that I am not entirely free from rheumatism."
"Athletes," Wallis & Ditts, druggists, at 421 Main Street, Fond du Lac, says: "I have been suffering from rheumatism for many years, and have tried many remedies, but have never found any relief. I have tried Athletes, and it has cured me. I feel that it is a good medicine, and I will use it again."
T. H. Spencer, 303 Main Street, La Crosse, a prominent chemist, and a member of the Board of Pharmacy of Wisconsin says: "I have recommended Athletes to my rheumatic patients with good results, and some special cases have found permanent relief. In rheumatism it works like a charm, and I consider it the best specific on our shelves."
"We have had a large sale of Athletes at Palmer & Stevens, of Janesville, state, and better reports from it than from any other medicine we ever sold. It has been sold in the city of Janesville, and it has cured many cases of rheumatism and neuralgia. One party tried it for neuralgia and not only received almost instant relief from that, but was also cured of a rheumatic pain of long standing in the knee. Another party, E. L. Dinwiddie, has been permanently cured of rheumatism by the use of a few bottles.
We could cite many more cases where the benefit derived from its use."
From the same city, L. B. Heinemann writes:
"Athletes is giving the best of satisfaction and its merits are now recognized by many in this section. I have the name of a number of persons in this county who have been helped by it."
"A nearly cured person who has purchased Athletes from our drug store promises it as being beneficial to him," says M. H. Pratt, of Mendota.
If you cannot get Athletes of your druggist, we will send it to you on receipt of regular price—no charge for postage. We prefer that it be sent to you by express, as it is so easily broken, and we will be responsible for its safe delivery. It is a very valuable medicine, and we will be glad to send it to you on receipt of the regular price. It is a very valuable medicine, and we will be glad to send it to you on receipt of the regular price.

An Ohio man who should have expected trouble.
MANSHIRE, Ohio, May 1.—A special to The Herald from Shelby states that Thursday night at Mr. Fisher, who is employed on the Cleveland, Columbus & Indianapolis railroad, near the station at Manshire, Ohio, purchased a ticket to Shelby to avoid suspicion, and in company with one Joseph McHenry went to Cleveland, Ohio, Cincinnati & Indianapolis railroad.
Fisher's goods were shipped to Kingston, Pa., which is believed to be the couple's destination. Fisher has just returned from his trip, and is now in the city. Although he could find no traces of them, he swears that he will follow them to the end of the earth and bring them back. Fisher, about ten years ago, was married to a woman known as Mary Fisher, who followed and shot him, and was wounded on the leg.

Capt. Coleman, near Weymouth, playing between the city and the state, has been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but it cured the cough, and he is now in the best of health. His wife, who was also troubled with a cough, was cured by the use of the same medicine.
Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Columbus household and on board the schooner, "The Great Boat" of this Standard Remedy at F. Sherer & Co's Drug Store.

—During the month of April there were eight interments in Oak Hill cemetery, only three being credited to the city. During the month of April last year there were eight interments, two being credited to the city.

—The new pastor of Court Street M. E. church has been suffering from a severe cold with asthma ever since his arrival in the city, confining him to the house most of the time. He expects to be able to preach to-morrow, however, both morning and evening.

—Western Star Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M., will assemble in special communication at Masonic hall, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 23, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother John Speers. All members of the Masonic fraternity in the city are invited to attend. By order of the W. M.

—The town has been very free from runaways for a short time past; but when people leave horses unbridled along the streets accidents are liable to occur. Even some of the city officials seem to forget the dignity that should attach to their positions, and set a bad example to others by allowing their animals to stand unwatched, and without any halter or hitching strap to keep them from interfering with other teams.

—A man who claimed to be from Rockford was around town this morning saying that he had been robbed of about two hundred dollars in money and jewelry, either here or at Beloit. After each story he tried to drown his sorrows in the drinking bowl; and after each period of refreshment his story became more sensational. The liquor began to tell on him however, and when the officers tried to question him he was so far gone that all he could answer was "Whasser massah bid, yiz fuz?" He was a suspicious looking character and Constable Ryan finally ran him in until he could find out who he was and where he came from.

—This morning about half-past nine o'clock a woman came to Constable Ryan and applied to him for help in finding her husband. She was greatly agitated, and in response to numerous questions, explained that her missing better-half was addicted to the use of stimulants, and had probably gone off to be eliminated. They were on their way to New Jersey, he had all their money in his pocket, and she was afraid that some one would make away with it. The constable started out on a tour of the saloons, and found his man in Malows' place on Main street. He was locked up, and will be allowed to stay until he sobers off.

—The Recorder this morning devotes considerable space to a denial of the Gazette's item referring to an assault made on a traveling man on West Milwaukee street Thursday evening. The most amusing thing about it, however, is that after a more or less ponderous sarcasm our morning contemporary meekly admits that the story as first published was substantially true. Now, if the Recorder will correct its statement and make it appear that the city marshal was not present "during the fracas," it will be about correct.

—Last evening the corner of Milwaukee and River streets was illuminated by an electric light swung from a Bradley mast. This plan of placing the lights is in much favor in New York, Brooklyn, Hartford, Connecticut, and other cities in the east. It is now being introduced through the western states and this one was brought here as an experiment. The device consists of an iron arm swung out on a pivot from the top of a mast. From the end of that arm the light is hung, and being lower than in most other systems it lights up the streets much better.

THE BATTLE OF SHILOH

As Presented by General B. M. Prentiss, Lecturer.

An audience estimated at seven to eight hundred people assembled at the Riverside rink last evening to hear General B. M. Prentiss lecture upon "The Battle of Shiloh." The lecturer appeared under the auspices of the W. H. Sargent Post No. 23, G. A. R., and was introduced by Post Commander J. B. Green. By their Past Commander Ed. S. Hayward, occupied seats upon the rostrum. General Prentiss is of medium size, weighing not over 140 pounds, of ravenous temperament, and his hair and beard indicate that the weight of sixty-seven years has had its effect upon him. By birth the general is a Virginian, although over forty years of his life were spent at Quincy, Illinois, his present home being in Missouri. He is an interesting speaker, possessing a keen, brilliant and penetrating voice which is well preserved. After a few introductory remarks the general commenced his graphic illustration of the BLOOD FIELD OF SHILOH, and while it was a vivid and living picture, it was but the personal experience of the individual—occurring in the front of one division—his own in action; yet while he stood "where the powder burned" he feelingly and eloquently alluded to the continual roar of musketry and artillery along the entire line. He related the charge that our army was taken by surprise, and did not even agree with Sherman that they were "astonished." None of the general's officers expected that a battle would be fought at Shiloh, predicting that it would take place at Corinth, while all the men held the opinion that Shiloh was the place, and the men were right. Col. Moore, of Prentiss' division, with six companies of infantry was sent out the night before at eleven o'clock to make a reconnaissance and ascertain the whereabouts of the enemy. At an early hour the next morning Col. Moore sent a message back to Prentiss that he had "found the confederate army and it reinforced by his other four companies, he would whip him." Not only the four companies, but a strong line of skirmishers were sent forward, and at least three quarters of a mile in advance of the federal encampment the two armies met, and the

The Latest News from Chicago To-day.

Thousands of Workmen go Out of Employment the Railways and Firms Refusing to Accede to their Demands.

Dispatches from Chicago to Janesville Calling for Help. Special to the Gazette.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Nearly all the freight handlers in the railway yards are out. The Lake Shore men were at work this morning with closed doors, but when discovered were compelled to quit by the strikers outside. The Wabash men refused to quit.

Ten thousand lumber handlers quit this morning, the employers steadily refusing to accede to their demands. Five thousand seamen will be thrown out of employment by the strike in the lumber trade.

Some employers acceded to the demands of the strikers for ten hours' pay for eight hours' work, but a majority of them refused and thousands of men are idle. Crane Brothers closed up leaving eleven hundred men without employment until the question is settled.

No important demonstrations have occurred as yet.

IN THIS CITY.

Early this morning rumors began to fly regarding the freight handlers strike at Chicago. At the Chicago & Northwestern offices, little was known although brief messages passed along the line from one operator to another, but through more or less light on the matter.

At the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul depot however, affairs were much more lively. Dispatches had been received there giving brief accounts of the strikes in Chicago and Milwaukee. That in the latter city is mostly among the switchmen and yard hands while in Chicago it is among the freight handlers. The following telegram was received early in the forenoon:

MILWAUKEE, May 1.

T. T. Croft, Janesville:

We want a lot of men to work in freight houses in Chicago. Let me know by four o'clock how many you can get. Wagon a dollar and a half a day and board. Will send a special train from Janesville to-morrow and will advise you later as to the starting time.

S. J. COLLINS, Supt.

The news of this dispatch soon spread, and quite a number of men signified their intention of going. Some of them were rather nervous about taking the job at first, as what they had read about the treatment of union men in St. Louis had made them uneasy; but when assured that they would not be called upon to go outside of the freight houses there was no trouble whatever in getting names. The men were booked, and then allowed to go, with instructions to come back at 12:30 to-morrow, that being the hour when the train will probably start.

An Attempt at Matrimonial Seduction.

Miss Minnie Soverhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Soverhill, and Mr. Edward Tracy, of Chicago, will be married this morning at one o'clock at the home of the bride's parents—Recorder, May 1.

The reliable organ of the democracy in one of its "feeble attempts at a sensation, publishes the above matrimonial item, in its last issue. Marriage notices are always of interest and especially so to the contracting parties; bogus notices, like the above, are a little demoralizing to all concerned. In this instance the clergyman who had been engaged to perform a wedding ceremony in the family at some future date discovered, while at the depot waiting for a train this morning, that it would be necessary for him to appear at the Soverhill residence without delay. His proposed tour was abandoned, and at an early hour he appeared on the scene, much to the surprise of the family. Half an hour later the head of the household stepped into the Recorder's sanctum and suggested that the records be examined, as he would like to be present if there was to be a wedding in his family. The error was charged to the vivid imagination of the night reporter, who was not visible. Miss Soverhill still retains her maiden name.

THE STRIKE.

The Latest News from Chicago To-day.

Thousands of Workmen go Out of Employment the Railways and Firms Refusing to Accede to their Demands.

Dispatches from Chicago to Janesville Calling for Help. Special to the Gazette.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Nearly all the freight handlers in the railway yards are out. The Lake Shore men were at work this morning with closed doors, but when discovered were compelled to quit by the strikers outside. The Wabash men refused to quit.

Ten thousand lumber handlers quit this morning, the employers steadily refusing to accede to their demands. Five thousand seamen will be thrown out of employment by the strike in the lumber trade.

Some employers acceded to the demands of the strikers for ten hours' pay for eight hours' work, but a majority of them refused and thousands of men are idle. Crane Brothers closed up leaving eleven hundred men without employment until the question is settled.

No important demonstrations have occurred as yet.

IN THIS CITY.

Early this morning rumors began to fly regarding the freight handlers strike at Chicago. At the Chicago & Northwestern offices, little was known although brief messages passed along the line from one operator to another, but through more or less light on the matter.

At the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul depot however, affairs were much more lively. Dispatches had been received there giving brief accounts of the strikes in Chicago and Milwaukee. That in the latter city is mostly among the switchmen and yard hands while in Chicago it is among the freight handlers. The following telegram was received early in the forenoon:

MILWAUKEE, May 1.

T. T. Croft, Janesville:

We want a lot of men to work in freight houses in Chicago. Let me know by four o'clock how many you can get. Wagon a dollar and a half a day and board. Will send a special train from Janesville to-morrow and will advise you later as to the starting time.

S. J. COLLINS, Supt.

The news of this dispatch soon spread, and quite a number of men signified their intention of going. Some of them were rather nervous about taking the job at first, as what they had read about the treatment of union men in St. Louis had made them uneasy; but when assured that they would not be called upon to go outside of the freight houses there was no trouble whatever in getting names. The men were booked, and then allowed to go, with instructions to come back at 12:30 to-morrow, that being the hour when the train will probably start.

An Attempt at Matrimonial Seduction.

Miss Minnie Soverhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Soverhill, and Mr. Edward Tracy, of Chicago, will be married this morning at one o'clock at the home of the bride's parents—Recorder, May 1.

The reliable organ of the democracy in one of its "feeble attempts at a sensation, publishes the above matrimonial item, in its last issue. Marriage notices are always of interest and especially so to the contracting parties; bogus notices, like the above, are a little demoralizing to all concerned. In this instance the clergyman who had been engaged to perform a wedding ceremony in the family at some future date discovered, while at the depot waiting for a train this morning, that it would be necessary for him to appear at the Soverhill residence without delay. His proposed tour was abandoned, and at an early hour he appeared on the scene, much to the surprise of the family. Half an hour later the head of the household stepped into the Recorder's sanctum and suggested that the records be examined, as he would like to be present if there was to be a wedding in his family. The error was charged to the vivid imagination of the night reporter, who was not visible. Miss Soverhill still retains her maiden name.
